FIRST ITEM AUCTIONED at Harrisburg's Swap Day today went to Charles Boyett, former Harco resident now living in Florida, who was on hand for the big uptown event. Mr. Boyett's $1.50 bid got him a $7.95 aerial from Farmer's Supply. Participating merchants have boxed desirable items worth at least five dollars and the auctioning is blind. On the platform are John Endsley (right), the auctioneer, and Muriel Holland, in charge of the arrangements. Photo shows Mr. Boyett being handed his package.

Cost of Education
In Saline County

EDUCATION DEPT.: Know how much it cost to educate the pupils of the public schools in Saline county last year?

One million, eight hundred twelve thousand, eight hundred ten dollars and thirty one cents. That's right: $1,812,810.31. The total is for 6,460 pupils.

I got my figures from John Murphy, assistant county superintendent of schools.

The total education expense was $1,639,346.04 and the building operating expense, which includes repair but no construction, was $181,833.52, giving us the $1,812,810.31 total.

Included in the education expense figure are: $1,008,320.76 for salaries, $98,363.80 for school lunch programs and $83,759.51 for transportation.

WE GROW 'EM ODDER DEPT.: I have on my desk a couple of freaks, both from the garden. Herman Berry of Cottage township brought in a couple of fascinating carrots, roots wound around each other into a grotesque shape. Jessie McNeece of 111 South Bedford street came into the office with a very funny looking tomato, which looks like a duck.

THE RIDGWAY NEWS a couple of weeks back carried a picture of a house-moving venture which was performed by W. H. Huston of Harrisburg.

It shows a large house, 30 by 46 feet, belonging to Herman Brown which was moved from his farm five miles east of Ridgway into the city of Ridgway. Furnishings were left in while the structure was moved.

Swap Day Gets Off to Fine Start; Two Sides of Square Roped Off

Swap Day was getting off to a fine start this morning although major activity was slated for this afternoon and evening.

The north and east sides of the court house square were roped off to provide places for sellers to show their wares, with traffic flowing on the other two sides of the square. Junior policemen were directing the traffic.

People continued to bring in articles they wish to sell, but at mid-morning these were some of the things seen on the square:

Pony carts, paints, tractor, refrigerator, apples and corn, several lawn mowers, garden tools, carpenter tools, bicycle, bed springs, baby buggy, crib, baby shoes and boots, baseball gloves, clothing, violin, small oil heater, T-shirts, pop cooler, oil furnace, table and chairs, quilting frames, grain drill, radios, fan, tubs, pictures and a couple of pheasants.

Peppers Return from 10 Weeks in England; Kept up with Local Events

Mr. and Mrs. James Pepper have returned from a stay of ten weeks in their native England but they kept up with events in Harrisburg while they were away.

"We got The Daily Register every day," Mr. Pepper stated. "It was from eight to ten days late but we were able to keep up with everything. And besides, our daughter wrote us 29 letters."

Mr. and Mrs. Pepper, who reside at 119 South Vine street, returned last Friday by plane after visiting relatives at Keswick, Cumberland, in the lake country of England. Mr. Pepper has a brother, and Mrs. Pepper two sisters and two brothers, that they had not seen since they last visited England 37 years ago.

They also saw cousins, nephews, nieces and friends.

Enthused Over Air Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Pepper both came from Keswick. Unmarried, Mr. Pepper came to the United States fifty years ago, then sent for his bride-to-be. They were married in Batavia, New York, and came to Harrisburg, where Mr. Pepper's brother, Jack, was living.

Tack, who is now deceased, and his wife, Jessie, later returned to England, and while the Peppers were visiting in England, Jack's wife died.

The Peppers were enthusiastic about making the trip by air, the ocean crossing taking but 11 hours. When they made their first trips here fifty years ago the boat trip took ten days.

"Flying is the only way to travel," Mr. Pepper said, and Mrs. Pepper agreed. They made their trip both ways by TWA from St. Louis.

In London, when they were getting ready to return, they ran across four people from the Harrisburg community, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wintizer and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Walls, all of east of the city, who were returning home, too, on the same plane.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 10 a.m. in East Gary, and Saturday at 10 a.m. in the Baptist church in Carmi. Burial will be in Kiykendall cemetery, Carmi.

The body will lie in state at the Kittinger funeral home in Carmi, from 7 p.m. Friday until the funeral.

Virgil Yates, 44, former resident of Harrisburg, died Wednesday of a heart attack, suddenly and unexpectedly, in his home in Louisville, Ky. He was with the Army Medical Depot in Louisville and had lived there for several years. He leaves his wife, Laverne, and a daughter, Joy, in the home.

Son of the late Rev. Andrew Yates, Mr. Yates attended school in Harrisburg and his mother, Mrs. Edith Yates, resides at 1254 South Granger street.

The following brothers and sisters survive: Clarence Yates, Bell Gardens, Calif., Don Yates, at the present time critically ill in the Lightner hospital, Harrisburg, Truman Yates, Hutsonville, Cecil Yates, Long Beach, Calif., Mrs. Nancy Lee Kirts, Columbus, Ohio, Mrs. Jewell Fiscus, Harrisburg, and Mrs. Edith Sims, Harrisburg. One brother, Hubert Yates, preceded him in death.

Next day the plane made its trip to New York City, but was off schedule and there were no accommodations for the trip on to St. Louis. So TWA put the group in the Belwood Plaza hotel, again told them they could call anybody at TWA expense, and arranged for a tour of New York City.

They enjoyed their hotel stops very much.

"The captain was very gracious," Mrs. Pepper said. "He was the No. 1 pilot of TWA and it was his 500th flight across the ocean."

Issue Two Oil Drilling Permits

Two permits for oil well drilling operations in Saline county were issued at Springfield Aug. 19. The permits:

To T. M. Pruet of Centralia, Ill., for the Charles A. Benson No. 1, NWc SW, 21-7s-6e (Long Branch).

To Breuer and Curran Oil Co., Olney, for the Frank Hanseman No. 1, SEC. 9-8s-7e (Eldorado). A plugged hole will be drilled out on a permit issued May 5, 1955, to Inland Producers, Inc.

Merchants have boxed items worth at least five dollars and they were being auctioned throughout the day by John and Bill Endsley from a platform on the east side of the square.

Everybody who is not a regular seller is invited to bring his unused saleable commodities to the square and sell them. If they desire, they can have them auctioned off free of charge by the Endsley.

Swap Day is sponsored by the Harrisburg Businessmen's association.

Death Takes Mrs. Raymond Tucker, Former Resident

Mrs. Gladys Marie Tucker, 48, of East Gary, Ind., died Wednesday at 10 a.m. at the Methodist hospital in Gary, Ind., after a lingering illness. She was the former Miss Gladys Yates and a former resident of this area who moved to Gary, Ind., in 1942 and to East Gary in 1949.

Mrs. Tucker is survived by her husband, Raymond; three daughters, Mrs. Carolyn Jean Gilbert of East Gary and Clara Beth and Raylene at home; her mother, Mrs. Charlie Yates of Anna; a sister, Mrs. Gleda Davis and her grandmother, Mrs. Alice Borders, both of Harrisburg, and two granddaughters.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 10 a.m. in East Gary, and Saturday at 10 a.m. in the Baptist church in Carmi. Burial will be in Kiykendall cemetery, Carmi.

Eisenhower Offers Halt in Nuclear Tests

Overrules Defense
Advisers, Allies in Proposal to Russia

LONDON (UPI) — President Eisenhower overruled defense advisers and the Western allies in offering Russia a two-year halt in nuclear tests, authoritative sources said today.

They said the conditional offer, made Wednesday at the London disarmament conference, amounts to a calculated American gamble to determine if there is any hope at all of a first step toward disarmament.

The stakes are high — two full years of the West's current nuclear advantage put up against the hope that Russia really means business in its discussions here.

Eisenhower sided with disarmament delegate Harold Stassen against top Defense Department and Atomic Energy Commission advisers in authorizing the drastic concession to Russia, the sources said.

Defense officials had publicly warned that even the old Western offer of a 10-month truce might disperse the U.S. nuclear weapons team. They told the President that continued testing might produce an almost totally "clean" hydrogen bomb—one with no dangerous radioactive fallout.

Authoritative sources said that Stassen and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles had to sell the proposal to Britain and France after Eisenhower decided to act at the end of a closely guarded two-month administration debate.

Britain opposed it because its new defense strategy pins future security on nuclear weapons without sizeable conventional forces. The forces are being cut now although the bomb stockpile is yet to be completed.

France opposed it because French scientists have yet to make their first atomic bomb. France was the last to approve the plan.

The disarmament conference was in recess until Friday so Soviet Delegate Valerian Zorin could study the plan. But any Russian reply was not expected for several weeks. And putting the ban into effect could take several months.

The living cost increase means that about 1,300 workers under labor contracts containing escalator clauses will get wage increases ranging from 1 cent to 6 cents an hour. These increases are based on the cost of living index. The bureau said the bulk of the workers will get increases of about 3 cents an hour.

Wage increases will go to workers in the automobile industry in August, reducing the cost of food, which accounts for almost one-third of the average family's spending.

While higher food prices have accounted for recent spurts in the index, they still lag behind price increases of other items.

Smelly Bone Taken From Mail Box

A large, smelly bone was taken out of the mail box at the southwest corner of the square this morning and Postmaster A. M. Hetherington said that the person who deposited it there was committing a federal offense.

Crops start coming to market in August, reducing the cost of food, which accounts for almost one-third of the average family's spending.

Hoffa said he could not recall the recorded conversation with Dio. But he said "the rap" probably referred to AFL efforts to revoke Dio's local charter before it could be brought into the Teamsters.

Committee Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) asked, "isn't it a fact that the rap actually referred to the racketeering practices of Dio—and you said you'd be there to protect him and help him?"

Hoffa said, "We were trying to work out a merger."

Charge Hoodlum Was Defended Despite Record

Sen. McClellan
Claims Joe Louis
Paid to Attend Trial

WASHINGTON (UPI) — James R. Hoffa's wiretapped voice came back to haunt him today as the Senate Rackets Committee charged that he defended hoodlum John Dio despite Dio's long record of racketeering.

The committee played a tape-recorded wiretap of a March 19, 1953, of a telephone call to Hoffa from Dio, who was New York boss of the old AFL Auto Workers and was then organizing a local union of taxi drivers.

Hoffa testified he was trying to get Dio's UAW-AFL Local 102 into the Teamsters rather than allow the Teamsters, who claimed jurisdiction over the hackers, to set up their own organizing drive.

In the recorded wiretap, Hoffa told Dio of half a dozen talks with Teamsters President Dave Beck, and advised Dio of a forthcoming meeting in Chicago.

Tried Merger With Dio

The voice identified as Hoffa's said:

"Somebody was putting in the rap against you; I don't know who the H— he is . . . but when it comes up, we'll be there . . . to defend it."

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
There's Irony in Justice Department's New-Found Desire For Tough Civil Rights Bill; For Four Years Justice Department Had Stalled; Congressmen Don't Understand The FBI Bill.

WASHINGTON—Here are some ironies about the breast-beating of the Justice Department for a tough civil rights bill, a bill even tougher than that now urged by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People:

Irony No. 1—Attorney General Brownell and the Justice Department have played ball for four years with Sen. Jim Eastland of Mississippi, bitterest opponent of civil rights. No judges, U. S. attorneys or U. S. marshals have been appointed in Mississippi without his okay.

Irony No. 2—Attorney General Brownell gave private backstage encouragement last year to the move to oust the Negro who is a member of the Republican National committee. Perry Howard of Mississippi. Howard has been a national committee man longer than anyone in history—33 years—a matter of pride to Negroes. Brownell encouraged the drive to oust him.

Irony No. 3—Brownell has been working to build up the Republican party in the South through E. O. Spencer, owner of the Walthal Hotel in Jackson, Miss., in which the Mississippi White Citizens Council was first organized. The council has had an office in Room 203 of the hotel. Brownell usually entertains Spencer in his home when the Mississippian comes to Washington.

KEEPING ALIVE THE ISSUE

Irony No. 4—For four years the Justice Department dragged its feet on civil rights, thereby making it an issue in the 1956 presidential election. Today the Justice Department is opposing the Senate bill, thereby keeping civil rights an issue in the 1958 congressional election.

Sen. Tom Hennings, Missouri Democrat, whose great-grandfather was one of the biggest slave-holders in Georgia, developed some of the facts regarding this stalling in a withering cross-examination of Brownell last year.

"You have come up with no program during your four years, until April 1, I believe," Senator Hennings challenged.

Brownell replied that he had worked on such civil rights as restaurant segregation, discrimination in the armed forces, and kindred measures.

"You know these were initiated

5,343 Youths Turned Over to State Commission

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—A total of 5,343 youths were turned over to the Illinois Youth Commission for rehabilitation during the January-June period this year, the commission reported today.

The commission said the figure indicated an increase of 341 cases under IYC jurisdiction during the six-month period. The commission had 3,480 youths under supervision on June 30.

A total of 803 boys and 102 girls, 79 and 41 per cent respectively, were placed under Youth Commission supervision by the Cook County Family Court.

Other counties with "high delinquency rates" during the first six months of the year, the commission said, were Winnebago and Sangamon with 15 commitments each; Peoria and Macon with 14 each; Madison, 12; and St. Clair, Lake and Du Page 11 each.

Forty-five of the 102 counties in the state had no commitments during the first six months of this year.

Saline Historical Society Entertains Randolph Group; Tour Is Enjoyed

Forty-six members of the Randolph County Historical Society, headed by the president, Ebers Schwizer, were guests of the Saline County Historical Society last Sunday in a day which had been well planned and was highly enjoyed.

The guests arrived at 12 o'clock noon and were received at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Aaron at 321 East Locust street in Harrisburg. Mr. Aaron is president of the Saline County Historical Society.

Here a warm welcome was extended by the Aarons and the following hostesses: Mrs. Paul Hatfield, Mrs. James Bond, Mrs. Ray Altmore and Mrs. Earl Dabney.

The Aaron home made a beautiful setting for the welcoming gesture of hospitality, when chicken, turkey, ham and cheese salad sandwiches, dainty cookies, punch and coffee and relishes were served from a table resplendent in elegant appointments of crystal and silver service on a cut work cloth. The table was centered with a lovely epergne of roses and tuba roses.

The home was decorated throughout for the occasion. On the mantle in the living room, tall arrangements of bright red canna and red zinnias were very effective and garden flowers in unusual arrangements added to the beauty and attractiveness of the home. The flowers were arranged by Mrs. W. D. Upchurch of Eldorado.

An antique music box, provided by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Metcalf, furnished background music during the entire time and was a fitting appointment in the home where cherished antiques are such a part of the furnishings.

Twenty-six members of the Saline county group were present to meet and receive the Randolph county guests. Mrs. Paul Hatfield poured punch, Mrs. Ray Altmore presided at the coffee service and others kept the table amply supplied with the delicious food.

After this welcoming event, the historic tour was started at one o'clock. Mr. Aaron, James Bond and Paul Hatfield were guides.

At Equality the group visited the Lawler monument, "Nigger Springs" and the Old Slave House. At New Shawneetown the group was welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. George Scherrer, Mr. and Mrs. Richard February and J. J. Galt. In the courthouse Mrs. Scherrer explained the interesting mural. Mr. Scherrer is president of the Shawnee Hills Recreation Association.

At Old Shawneetown the group took a trip through the Old State Bank building and the Richeson Carroll mansion, which is now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Steffko. Mrs. Steffko is a great-granddaughter of J. D. Richeson, pioneer merchant and builder of the home in 1858. The two families of Richeson and Carroll were perhaps millionaires.

The Old State Bank Building, built in 1837, is the second finest example of Greek architecture in the United States. It was one of the first of the State banks and among the last to cease operations.

Marshall bank, the first brick house in Shawneetown, built in 1812, home of the first Land bank, started in 1816, and the first church (Presbyterian) in 1823, provided great interest to the visitors. Here lived Sara Marshall, who wrote the first novel in Illinois called "Early Engagements"; also Samuel Marshall, friend of Lincoln and first young man to go from this section of the country to Yale University.

Visits were also made to the Posey building, built as a residence by the sons of General Thomas Posey. Later Robert Ingersoll, the great agnostic, had his law office in this building.

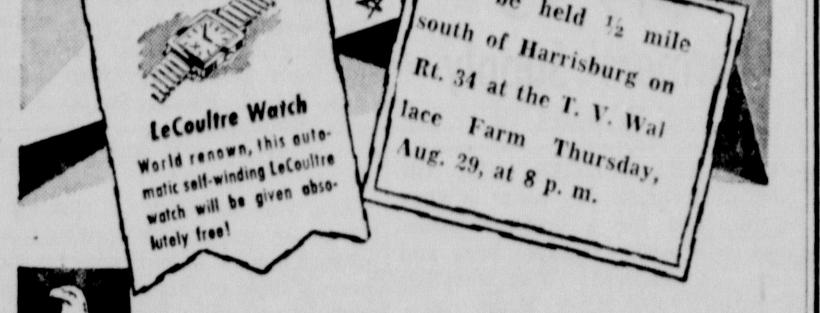

Rowan house, over 125 years old, built by Stephen Rowan, the same family as the "Old Kentucky Home" Rowans, was visited. This is Mrs. Paul Hatfield's family (Doris Rowan Hatfield). Also visited were the Methodist church, built in 1842, Docker House built by William Docker, first mayor of Shawneetown. He was mayor when Lafayette visited Shawneetown in 1825, and other interesting places in the history of this state and country.

An entertainment feature had also been arranged for the Randolph county visitors when Rudy's Ski School put on a ski show for the group. This was very enjoyable and thanks were extended to Rudy Phillips for the presentation of this skill in water sports.

After the tour all returned to Harrisburg, where a lovely dinner was served at Santy's Dining room.

The tables with flowers were arranged by ladies of the Saline County Historical Society.

Before departing for their homes at six o'clock, thanks were extended by President Schwizer for the group to the Saline County Historical Society for such an interesting day, to Mr. and Mrs. Aaron for their hospitality and all felt that it had indeed been a rewarding event in which new friends were made and old friendships renewed.

Trucker Arrested for Speeding; Says Was Testing Power Gadget

MARION, Ill., Aug. 23—A Texas motorist paid a $39 fine for speeding here late Tuesday, despite his story to police that he was only testing a "power gadget" on his truck.

Frank Garza, Uvalde, Tex., was arrested just outside Marion for driving 90 miles per hour in a 45-mile speed zone.

Garza told State Patrolman William Cooper that he was testing a "gadget" which guaranteed him more power and would save him money on gasoline.

He said he wanted to test it out before he left town.

Grossly Misinformed:

Magazine Chides Old Shawneetown

(Editor's Note: The following news release was received from The Curtis Publishing Company. A suggested title, "How wrong can a writer be?"

A deep rivalry exists between the new and old Shawneetowns, says an article in the September issue of Holiday magazine.

Saul Bellow, the Illinois novelist, writing on four of the State's old towns, says the two factions in the old and new part of Shawneetown "express pity and contempt for each other."

The author says that the old part once was one of the greatest cities of the state and he tells the story of how representatives

"from a little northern community called Chicago once approached the bankers of opulent Shawneetown for a loan, and how they were turned down because Chicago was too remote a village to bother with."

The old part would have withered away with the disappearance of the keelboat and the steamboat, but "its ruin has been made complete by the flooding of the Ohio," Bellow writes.

He continues: "A strange, Silur

Gary, Ind., visited over the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Larue Frohock and daughters. Mrs. Inez Frohock and daughter, Peggy, who have been visiting in Gary and Chicago, came with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ories, their daughter, and Mrs. Jesse Colbert were Friday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Colbert.

Miss Helen Devous was a Monday night guest of Miss Brenda Colbert.

Several people from this community attended the funeral of Mrs. Grace Frohock at the Equal Methodist church Thursday.

ian smell emanates from the mud and the barren houses. The scene is Southern. Whittlers sit on boxes, and the dogs roll in the pot holes; the stores sell fat back, collard greens, mustard greens and black-eyed peas. The flies wait hungrily in the air, sheets of flies that make a noise like the tearing of tissue paper. People in the river bottoms tell you that Old Shawneetown is a rip-roaring place on a Saturday night; it swallows up husbands and their pay checks. The bars near the levee burst into music, and the channel catfish fry in deep fat and the beer flows.

Gasoline contains nearly three times the energy of TNT, six times that of nitroglycerine and more than seven times as much as dynamite.

Federal Government Purchases

2,100 Miles of State Toll Roads

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government today brought 2,100 miles of toll superhighways in 15 states into the federal interstate highway system.

Congress now must decide whether the federal government should buy the roads and make them toll-free or let the states maintain them and continue to collect tolls. The federal government is barred from maintaining toll highways.

The action by the Bureau of Public Roads was made on recommendations of the various state highway commissions. It brought parts of such famous superhighways as the Pennsylvania Turnpike and the New York Thruway into the 41,000-mile defense-linked federal highway system.

Several other persons designated to receive money from the McAdams estate have been named defendants in the suit.

Armed Forces to Receive Flu Shots

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U. S. Armed forces will begin receiving Asiatic flu vaccine in about a month, officials said today.

A Defense spokesman said first priority will go to men overseas, their families and Defense Department civilian employees overseas.

The department has for several years given a flu shot to military men. This year, officials said, a so-called monovalent shot, to combat solely the Asiatic flu strain, will be given first. Later the usual polyvalent shot will be given.

There were some notable omissions. The West Virginia Turnpike was left out altogether. So was the northeast extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike and most of the New Jersey Turnpike.

The bureau said these famous toll roads were omitted because they "did not lie along general location lines of the interstate system."

New Jersey's Garden State Parkway was omitted because it bars trucks.

The bureau must tell Congress by next January how much it will cost to buy the roads. Congress then will decide whether to purchase them.

The bureau said it could give

Powell Named To Commissions

Representative Paul Powell (D-Vienna) has been reappointed to the Illinois Budgetary Commission. He has been a member of this commission since 1945.

He was also appointed to the Legislative Audit Commission, which is a new commission established by the 70th General Assembly. This commission will determine policies of the Auditor-General, and make reports and recommendations to the General Assembly concerning the state audit, revenues and expenditures.

Commission selections were made recently by House Minority Leader Joseph L. DeLaCour of Chicago.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.

(Written for NEA Service)

Big cities have the same things that are found in small towns but the numbers of these things are greater. There are more people, more cars, more stores, more churches, more streets and more schools. There has to be more food, more clothing, more business, more entertainment and more housing.

In the cities one finds more temptation and more sin. There is probably more friendship and more charity. Certainly there is more wealth and more poverty.

Out-of-the-way cities offer as much opportunity to worship and to love our fellowmen as do smaller communities. Love and peace come only from personal contact with God. Worship is not determined by the size of the town. It is determined by the spiritual courage and faith of the individual.

Whenever we live, we must find salvation and God's will for us on a personal basis. God deals with individuals everywhere regardless of the size of the town.

Galatia Grade School Term to Begin Sept. 3

The Galatia grade school will be open the 1957-58 term Tuesday, Sept. 3, and there will be a full day's schedule, with buses operating on regular schedule and the lunch room serving the noon meal. Principal N. R. Gullie has announced.

Book rentals will be $4 per pupil in all grades, lunch will be served for 20 cents per meal and insurance will be $1.25 for the term, Mr. Gullie stated.

He also reminded the parents of all first and fifth grade pupils that each child must complete a physical and dental examination and that all children entering the first grade must bring a birth certificate.

With the exception of a music instructor, the school's staff is complete. Mr. Gullie said he was still looking for a music teacher and anyone interested in the position and qualified, could contact him at the school office.

All grade teachers, other than the seventh grade, are the same as last year.

George Sharp of Harrisburg, who taught at Eddyville last term, will teach the seventh grade.

Other teachers, Mr. Gullie announced, are: first grade, Blanche Limerick; second grade, Margaret Jones; third grade, Carmel Jones; fourth grade, Edith Clarida; fifth grade, Thelma Bovinet; sixth grade, Menard Hawkins, who also is the coach; eighth grade, Frank Gunter.

Bus drivers are Harold Tate, Lloyd Sprague and Carl D. Harris. Lunch room cooks are Loraine Allen and Opal Adams and the custodian is Roy Wallace.

Dodgers Tangle with Braves After 8-0 Win Over Reds; Giants Beat Cardinals, 13-6

By United Press
Manager Walt Alston has bluntly told his Dodgers "it's now or never" — and apparently they believe him.

The Dodgers, about to tangle head-on with first-place Milwaukee tonight in the first of a three-game series, are "momentum" with a three-game winning streak and believe they can overtake the Braves.

The Brooks combined fine pitching, solid hitting and a flawless defense in handing the Cincinnati Redlegs their ninth straight defeat, 8-0, Wednesday.

Don Newcombe won his 10th game of the season.

Gino Cimoli gave Newcombe a 3-0 lead when he belted a home run with two on in the third inning and the Dodgers hammered Hal Jeffcoat from the box with a five-run outburst in the seventh.

Win Streak Ends

The New York Giants ended the Cardinals' four-game winning streak with a 13-6 victory in the only other National League game scheduled.

In the American League, the White Sox mauled the Senators, 12-6; Baltimore defeated Detroit, 9-3; the Kansas City Athletics cut the Yankee lead to six games by trimming the world champs for the second straight time, 6-3, and Boston ended a five-game losing streak with a 3-1 victory over Cleveland.

Six home runs were hit in the Giants-Cardinals tussle, with Wally Moon, Stan Musial, Eddie Miksis and Ken Boyer connecting for St. Louis, and Willie Mays and Hank Sauer hitting homers for New York.

The Giants routed loser Lindy McDaniel with a six-run third inning and Valmy Thomas tripled with the bases full in the fifth to highlight a four-run rally. Bonus southpaw Mike McCormick was the winner, coming to starter Stu Miller's rescue in the first inning.

The White Sox scored seven runs in the third inning to clinch their game with Washington.

Bob Usher, Roy Sievers and Art Schult each homered for the Senators, all of the blows coming with the bases empty. Reliever Gerry Staley was credited with his fifth victory while Russ Kemmerer suffered his eighth defeat.

Williams Goes Hitless

Joe Durham and Al Pilarcik each hit three-run homers to lead the Orioles to their victory over the Tigers. Ray Moore, who registered his ninth victory, blanked the Tigers until the seventh inning when Detroit reliever Lou Slaughter walked his third Homer of the season with two on. Ken Lehman relieved Moore in the ninth. Southpaw Billy Hoeft gave up Baltimore's first four runs to suffer his eighth defeat.

Jim Piersall's two-run homer in the third inning paved the way for the Red Sox victory over Mike Garcia, whose only satisfaction was in holding Ted Williams hitless in four trips to cut Ted's batting average to .385. Willard Nixon helped himself to his 10th victory by singling before Piersall's home run.

Former Yankees did all the damage as Kansas City won its first series from New York since moving west. One-time Yankee farmhand Jack Urban pitched the eighth victory, with ninth-inning help from Virgil Trucks, and in the three-run first inning which tagged Johnny Kucks with the loss, the names of Vic Power, Billy Hunter, Bob Cerv, Billy Martin and Woody Held figured in the run-making. What proved to be the winning runs came in the fourth inning on a walk to Held and singles by Tim Thompson and Urban.

At Confidential Trial

Defense Describes Spicy Antics Of Mae West, Dorothy Dandridge

HOLLYWOOD — A recess was called today in the spicy Confidential criminal libel trial in the heat of a defense move aimed at proving Mae West possessed a passion for boxer and singer Dorothy Dandridge made love in the woods with a handleader.

Top-secret sources of lurid stories in Confidential and Whisper magazines were disclosed Wednesday prior to the adjournment of the trial until Friday. The defense maintained that affidavits were obtained to substantiate stories on such film celebrities as Clark Gable, Maureen O'Hara, John Carroll and Producer Paul Gregory.

Fred Meade, operator with his wife of a Hollywood "listening post" for Confidential, was the defense counsel's "bomshell" witness of the day. Meade told of persons who tipped him off on prospective stories about the off-screen life of movie stars.

Miss West was introduced into testimony when Meade was asked about the Confidential story titled, "Mae West's Open-Door Policy." The story claimed Miss West was not kidding when she said "come up and see me some time" and alleged that her chauffeur took her up on the offer.

Meade testified that Miss West had an "affinity" for prize fighters and often hired them as chauffeurs. The defense witness, also a defendant in the trial, said he obtained a letter signed by a "Dale Wright" and an affidavit from one-time featherweight champion Albert (Chalky) Wright to authenticate that Miss West allegedly had other than business relations.

Woman Accused of Theft, Daughter Are Arrested

TULSA, Okla. — A 51-year-old woman accused of theft and embezzlement in the United States, Canada and Hawaii and her daughter were in jail today because a doctor's receptionist recognized the woman from newspaper descriptions.

Mrs. Margaret Lydia Burton was held on $30,000 bond on charges of interstate transportation of stolen property. Her blond daughter, Sheila Joy, 20, was charged with conspiring in the act and held on $10,000 bond.

The charges against them state the stolen goods and money amount to more than $100,000. They were arrested Wednesday.

The pair left Atlanta, Ga., about a month ago after a $100,000 shortage was found in the accounts of a clinic at Decatur, Ga., where Mrs. Burton had been office manager for two years.

The FBI said Mrs. Burton is a China-born British subject who has used 22 aliases since the first charge was filed against her in 1939. The FBI said her daughter is a former honor student at a fashionable Atlanta school.

Wrecking Crew Rescues Girl, 3, Wedged Between Buildings

PROVIDENCE, R. I. — A chubby, 3-year-old girl, wedged between two buildings for 20 hours, was dug out by a wrecking company crew today.

The child, Eileen Fahey, was crying as rescuers brought her through a cheering and weeping crowd of 1,000 persons.

Eileen was taken to Rhode Island Hospital in a waiting ambulance.

"Thank God," her father, John M. Fahey, 39, a railroad brakeman, said when the girl was lifted from her cramped tomb through a hole hammered by rescuers.

She had slipped into the 8-foot space Wednesday, apparently while chasing a kitten.

Meade testified that Terry and the sultry singer dated while both were appearing at a nightclub in the mountain resort town of Tahoe Village, Nev. The story alleged that the Negro singer and a male companion spent intimate moments together in the woods surrounding the lake.

a very strong friendship and working relationship between you and Dio."

"I didn't make an investigation of Johnny Dio," Hoffa retorted. "I had no reason to do so."

Learned Dio's Record

"We met in 1952. This was early 1953. We were discussing labor. He was an official of the UAW. We were trying to work out a problem between our two organizations."

"You had no idea he had been involved in racketeering?" asked Sen. Karl E. Mundt (R-S.D.).

"I didn't say that," Hoffa replied hastily. "I don't know whether I knew it then, but I did find out he had been convicted. He wasn't convicted while in the UAW, but he was convicted."

Today's session began with the committee charge that the Teamsters paid Joe Louis $2,500 "for sitting" in the courtroom for two hours" at Hoffa's bribery-conspiracy trial.

Hoffa replied that "if he was paid, he was not paid by Hoffa. I know nothing about it."

The committee asked Hoffa to submit a list of expenses paid by the union for Louis, union officials and goons who came to Washington during Hoffa's recent trial on charges that he tried to plant a spy on the committee staff to steal secret documents.

The committee previously brought out that the union paid Louis' hotel bill.

The committee said Wednesday that Teamster treasures have paid $5,159 of a $8,925 bill amassed at the Woodner Hotel here, where Teamster officials stayed during Hoffa's month-long trial.

State Appeals Awards for Land Condemnation

MARION, Ill. — The state of Illinois has filed a notice of appeal in a Circuit Court here as a result of land condemnation awards given to property owners in Carterville for highway construction purposes.

Special Asst. State's Atty. Kenneth Powless, Marion, said the appeal was filed because he feels the awards given by a Williamson County jury in the recent condemnation suit were excessive.

He said the state plans to take the appeal to the state Supreme Court.

W. D. MacLeod, of the district highway headquarters in Carbondale, said the appeal would delay highway construction at Carterville for at least a year.

He also said the awards made in the condemnation case would have a far-reaching effect on other proposed construction in Williamson County and elsewhere in southern Illinois.

He said other projects might be delayed as a result of the appeal.

MacLeod said the state is attempting to acquire land for a right-of-way from Marion to Dongola for a proposed highway construction project.

Murphy Outlines Cost of Education In Saline County

EDUCATION DEPT.: Know how much it costs to educate the pupils of the public schools in Saline county last year?

One million, eight hundred twelve thousand, eight hundred ten dollars and thirty one cents. That's right: $1,812,810.31. The total is for 6,460 pupils.

I got my figures from John Murphy, assistant county superintendent of schools.

The total education expense was $2,639,346.04 and the building operating expense, which includes repair but no construction, was $181,833.52, giving us the $1,812,810.31 total.

Included in the education expense figure are: $1,008,320.76 for salaries, $98,363.80 for school lunch programs and $83,759.51 for transportation.

WE GROW 'EM ODDER DEPT.: I have on my desk a couple of freaks, both from the garden. Herman Berry of Cottage township brought in a couple of fascinating carrots, roots entwined around each other into a grotesque shape. Jessie McNeece of 111 South Bedford street came into the office with a very funny looking tomato, which looks like a duck.

THE RIDGEWAY NEWS a couple of weeks back carried a picture of a house-moving venture which was performed by W. H. Huston of Harrisburg.

It shows a large house, 30 by 46 feet, belonging to Herman Brown which was moved from his farm five miles east of Ridgeway into the city of Ridgeway. Furnishings were left in while the structure was moved.

Swap Day Gets Off to Fine Start; Two Sides of Square Roped Off

Swap Day was getting off to a fine start this morning although major activity was slated for this afternoon and evening.

The north and east sides of the court house square were roped off to provide places for sellers to show their wares, with traffic flowing on the other two sides of the square. Junior policemen were directing the traffic.

People continued to bring in articles they wish to sell, but at mid-morning these were some of the things seen on the square:

Pony carts, paints, tractor, refrigerator, apples and corn, several lawn mowers, garden tools, carpenter tools, bicycle, bed springs, baby buggy, crib, baby shoes and boots, baseball gloves, clothing, violin, small oil heater, T-shirts, pop cooler, oil furnace, table and chairs, picture frames, grain drill, radios, fan, tubs, pictures and a couple of pheasants.

Peppers Return from 10 Weeks in England; Kept up with Local Events

Mr. and Mrs. James Pepper have returned from a stay of ten weeks in their native England but they kept up with events in Harrisburg while they were away.

"We got The Daily Register every day," Mr. Pepper stated. "It was from eight to ten days late but we were able to keep up with everything. And besides, our daughter wrote us 22 letters."

Mr. and Mrs. Pepper, who returned last Friday by plane after visiting relatives at Keswick, Cumberland, in the lake country of England. Mr. Pepper is a brother, and Mrs. Pepper two sisters and two brothers, that they had not seen since they last visited England 37 years ago.

They also saw cousins, nephews, nieces and friends.

Enthused Over Air Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Pepper both came from Keswick. Unmarried, Mr. Pepper came to the United States fifty years ago, then sent for his bride-to-be. They were married in Batavia, New York, and came to Harrisburg, where Mr. Pepper's brother, Jack, was living.

Jack, who is now deceased, and his wife, Jessie, later returned to England, and while the Peppers were visiting in England, Jack's wife died.

The Peppers were enthusiastic about making the trip by air, the ocean crossing taking but 11 hours. When they made their first trip here fifty years ago the boat trip took ten days.

"Flying is the only way to travel," Mr. Pepper said, and Mrs. Pepper agreed. They made their trip both ways by TWA from St. Louis.

Meet Harrisburg People

In London, when they were getting ready to return, they ran across four people from Harrisburg community. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wintizer and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Walls, all of east of the city, who were returning home, too, on the same plane.

He said Mr. Wintizer edged up to him and said, "I believe I know you," and he replied, "You're Mr. Wintizer, aren't you?"

They all came back on the same plane, but there were unusual incidents connected with the trip.

Mr. Pepper said they were all on the plane ready to leave, when the captain announced there would be a five-minute delay. He soon came back and said the delay would be a two-hour delay.

Finally he came back and told the passengers to get off the plane, it wouldn't leave until the next day. Mr. Pepper said he learned the plane was having brake trouble.

They took them to a fine hotel, all expenses paid, and told them they could call or cable anybody they desired at TWA expense.

Enjoy Hotel Stop

TWA took them to a fine hotel, all expenses paid, and told them they could call or cable anybody they desired at TWA expense.

Then the group was taken on a tour of London.

Next day the plane made its trip to New York City, but was off schedule and there were no accommodations for the trip on to St. Louis. So TWA put the group in the Belwood Plaza hotel, again told them they could call anywhere, at TWA expense, and arranged for a tour of New York City.

They enjoyed their hotel stops very much.

"The captain was very gracious," Mrs. Pepper said. "He was the No. 1 pilot of TWA and it was his 500th flight across the ocean."

Issue Two Oil Drilling Permits

To Breuer and Curran Oil Co., Olney, for the Frank Hanselman No. 1, SEC. 9-8-7e (Eldorado). A plugged hole will be drilled out on a permit issued May 5, 1955, to Inland Producers, Inc.

Death Takes Mrs. Raymond Tucker, Former Resident

Mrs. Gladys Marie Tucker, 48, of East Gary, Ind., died Wednesday at 10 a.m. at the Methodist hospital in Gary, Ind., after a lingering illness.

She was the former Miss Gladys Yates and a former resident of this area who moved to Gary, Ind., in 1942 and to East Gary in 1949.

Mrs. Tucker is survived by her husband, Raymond; three daughters, Mrs. Carolyn Jean Gilbert of East Gary and Clara Beth and Raylene at home; her mother, Mrs. Charlie Yates of Anna; a sister, Mrs. Gleda Davis and her grandmother, Mrs. Alice Borders, both of Harrisburg, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 10 a.m. in East Gary, and Saturday at 10 a.m. in the Baptist church in Carmi. Burial will be in Kilkendall cemetery, Carmi.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

D R E W PEARSON Says: There's Irony in Justice Department's New-Found Desire For Tough Civil Rights Bill: For Four Years Justice Department Had Stalled: Congressmen Don't Understand The FBI Bill.

WASHINGTON.—Here are some ironies about the breast-beating of the Justice Department for a tough civil rights bill, a bill even tougher than that now urged by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Irony No. 1 — Attorney General Brownell and the Justice Department have played ball for four years with Sen. Jim Eastland of Mississippi, bitterest opponent of civil rights. No judges, U. S. attorneys or U. S. marshals have been appointed in Mississippi without his okay.

Irony No. 2—Attorney General Brownell gave private backstage encouragement last year to the move to oust the Negro who is a member of the Republican National committee. Perry Howard of Mississippi. Howard has been a national committeeman longer than anyone in history—33 years—a matter of pride to Negroes. Brownell encouraged the drive to oust him.

Irony No. 3 — Brownell has been working to build up the Republican party in the South through E. O. Spencer, owner of the Walthall Hotel in Jackson, Miss., in which the Mississippi White Citizens Council was first organized. The council has had an office in Room 203 of the hotel. Brownell usually entertains Spencer in his home when the Mississippians come to Washington.

KEEPING ALIVE THE ISSUE
Irony No. 4—For four years the Justice Department dragged its feet on civil rights, thereby making it an issue in the 1956 presidential election. Today the Justice Department is opposing the Senate bill, thereby keeping civil rights an issue in the 1958 congressional election.

Sen. Tom Hennings, Missouri Democrat, whose great-grandfather was one of the biggest slave-holders in Georgia, developed some of the facts regarding this stalling in a withering cross-examination of Brownell last year.

"You have come up with no program during your four years, until April 1, I believe," Senator Hennings challenged.

Brownell replied that he had worked on such civil rights as restaurant segregation, discrimination in the armed forces, and kindred measures.

"You know these were initiated in the preceding administration," Hennings was quick to point out.

"A great many of them, yes," Brownell admitted.

"We welcome your suggestion that there be a commission on civil rights in the Department of Justice," Hennings continued. "At my request on March 22, 1955, this letter was addressed to you."

He then read Brownell a letter one year old asking for his views on legislation proposing a civil rights commission.

"There was no reply from you whatsoever over a year ago relating to the establishment of a commission or a division," Hennings pressed.

The attorney general squirmed and sparred. He could give no adequate explanation. Real fact is that while civil rights was being pushed for four years by Hennings and Congressman Cellar in the House, they got no help from Brownell or from his Justice Department or from the Eisenhower administration.

TRUMAN ON TOBACCO
Senator Neuberger of Oregon has received a lot from Harry Truman congratulating him on his stand to remove tobacco from the list of basic crops. "When the white man landed in the New World," wrote Truman, "he gave the Indian white men's diseases and the Indian gave him tobacco. I don't know which has been worse."

THE FBI BILL

A distinguished, much-loved member of Congress was talking about the FBI bill to reverse the Supreme Court on the Jencks case.

"The FBI has a file on every senator, every member of Congress," he said. "Suppose I should die and then when I could not defend myself, the FBI file on me should be opened by court order."

His diagnosis indicates how little Congress knows about a piece of legislation which J. Edgar Hoover demands be rushed through Congress in record time.

In the first place, FBI files under the Supreme Court ruling could never be opened after a man is dead, but only on the demand of the man who is involved, and then only if he is being prosecuted by the government. If, for instance, the congressman who had this misunderstanding of the Supreme Court ruling should happen to be prosecuted by the government on the strength of FBI testimony, then, and only then, could other statements by an FBI witness against him be used from the FBI files to see if that witness was telling the truth.

No undercover agents would be disclosed for the simple reason that no files can be opened unless an FBI witness is already on the witness stand in public court. Then, only statements made by him and pertaining to the defendant can be produced from the files, under the Supreme Court ruling.

Note — Patient, painstaking Sen. Joe O'Mahoney of Wyoming has been ironing out some of the kinks in the hastily-written FBI bill which Hoover wants rammed through Congress. He now has it in much better shape than the bill which breezed through the House Judiciary committee without some congressmen even reading it.

ULCERS AND CIVIL RIGHTS

Tension has mounted in Congress as strategists of both partiesicker over the civil rights bill. Backstage, the cloakrooms and corridors have been a-buzz with the latest moves and counter moves.

Young Democrat Dick Bolling of Kansas City emerged from a meeting with House Speaker Sam Rayburn in which Rayburn promised to help free the bill from the hostile clutches of Democrat Howard Smith of Virginia, chairman of the Rules committee. Even so, Bolling looked worried.

"How goes the battle?" asked Jimmy Roosevelt of Los Angeles. "Well, I've still got my nerve, I hope, in the singular sense," replied Bolling. "My nerves, in the plural sense, are in bad shape. My wife tells me if it keeps up I'll really get the ulcer which I should have already."

Saline Historical Society Entertains Randolph Group; Tour Is Enjoyed

Forty-six members of the Randolph County Historical Society, Carroll mansion, which is now owned by the president, Ebers Schwizer, were guests of the Saline County Historical Society last Sunday in a day which had been well planned and was highly enjoyed.

The guests arrived at 12 o'clock noon and were received at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Aaron, at 321 East Locust street in Harrisburg. Mr. Aaron is president of the Saline County Historical Society.

Here a warm welcome was extended by the Aarons and the following hostesses: Mrs. Paul Hatfield, Mrs. James Bond, Mrs. Ray Altman and Mrs. Earl Dabney.

The Aaron home made a beautiful setting for the welcoming gesture of hospitality, when chicken, turkey, ham and cheese salad sandwiches, dainty cookies, punch and coffee and relishes were served from a table resplendent in elegant appointments of crystal and silver service on a cut work cloth.

The table was centered with lovely sprays of roses and tube roses.

The home was decorated throughout for the occasion. On the mantel in the living room, tall arrangements of bright red canna and red zinnias were very effective and golden flowers in unusual arrangements added to the beauty and attractiveness of the home. The flowers were arranged by Mrs. W. D. Upchurch of Eldorado.

An antique music box, provided by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Metcalf, furnished background music during the entire time and was a fitting appointment in the home where cherished antiques are such a part of the furnishings.

Twenty-six members of the Saline county group were present to meet and receive the Randolph county guests. Mrs. Paul Hatfield poured punch. Mrs. Ray Altman presided at the coffee service and others kept the table amply supplied with the delicious food.

After this welcoming event, the historic tour was started at one o'clock. Mr. Aaron, James Bond and Paul Hatfield were guides.

At Equality the group visited the Lawler monument, "Nigger Springs" and the Old Slave House. At New Shawneetown the group was welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. George Scherer, Mr. and Mrs. February and J. J. Galt. In the courthouse Mrs. Scherer explained the interesting mural. Mr. Scherer is president of the Shawnee Hills Recreation Association.

At Old Shawneetown the group took a trip through the Old State

Speeding; Says Was

Testing Power Gadget

MARION, Ill., Aug. 17.—A Texas motorist paid $39 fine for speeding here late Tuesday, despite his story to police that he was only testing a "power gadget" on his truck.

Frank Garza, Uvalde, Tex., was arrested just outside Marion for driving 90 miles per hour in a 45-mile speed zone.

Garza told State Patrolman William Cooper that he was testing a "gadget which guaranteed him more power and would save him money on gasoline."

He said he wanted to test it out before he left town.

No Luck
HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 17.—Water engineer Alexander Markus complained that visitors to the filter plant polluted the sewage system. He said the visitors tossed coins for good luck into the system, thus clogging machinery and polluting the water.

Grossly Misinformed:

Magazine Chides Old Shawneetown

(Editor's Note: The following news release was received from The Curtis Publishing Company. A suggested title, "How wrong can a writer be!"

A deep rivalry exists between the new and old Shawneetowns, says an article in the September issue of Holiday magazine.

Saul Bellow, the Illinois novelist, writing on four of the State's old towns, says the two factions in the old and new part of Shawnee town "express pity and contempt for each other."

The author says that the old part once was one of the great cities of the state and he tells the story of how representatives from a little northern community called Chicago once approached the bankers of opulent Shawneetown for a loan, and how they were turned down because Chicago was too remote a village to bother with.

The old part would have withered away with the disappearance of the keelboat and the steamboat, but its ruin has been made complete by the flooding of the Ohio," Bellow writes.

He continues: "A strange, Silur

ian smell emanates from the mud created it beyond the river's reach and the barren houses, the scene is high and dry, spacious and is Southern. Whittlers sit on box rather vacant. For many of the houses, the dogs roll in the pot holes, the stores sell fat back homes. Half ghost, half honky-tonk, old Shawneetown keeps a black-eyed peas. The flies wait for a sized population of tradition-hungry in the air, sheets of flies alights."

Huge Eggs

The flightless kiwi bird of New Zealand lays eggs in proportion to its size which are larger than those of any other living species. They measure five by three inches and weigh a pound.

Gasoline contains nearly three times the energy of TNT, six times that of nitroglycerine and more than seven times as much as dynamite. The state and the WPA

Contest Will in $200,000 Estate

SALEM, Ill. (UPI) — Three relatives who were not mentioned in the will of a wealthy relative have started court proceedings in Circuit Court here over a $200,000 estate.

Ada Sands, Oscar Farthing, and Ed Tate, who said they are first cousins of the late Mrs. Lotte J. McAdams, contested the woman's will.

They filed their complaints Tuesday and asked that the will be set aside.

Mrs. McAdams died in Centralia last April at the age of 104. She left most of her estate to two friends, Mrs. Dorothy Brady and Mrs. Eunice Skinner.

The plaintiffs charged that Mrs. McAdams was of "unsound mind and memory" when she made out her will and was under "undue influence."

Several other persons designated to receive money from the McAdams estate have been named defendants in the suit.

Armed Forces to Receive Flu Shots

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U. S. Armed forces will begin receiving Asiatic flu vaccine in about a month, officials said today.

A Defense spokesman said first priority will go to men overseas, their families and Defense Department civilian employees overseas.

The department has for several years given a flu shot to military men. This year, officials said, a so-called monovalent shot, to combat solely the Asiatic flu strain, will be given first. Later the usual polyclonal shot will be given.

Federal Government Purchases 2,100 Miles of State Toll Roads

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government today bought 2,100 miles of toll superhighways in 15 states into the federal interstate highway system.

Congress now must decide whether the federal government should buy the roads and make them toll free or let the states maintain them and continue to collect tolls. The federal government is barred from maintaining toll highways.

The action by the Bureau of Public Roads was made on recommendations of the various state highway commissions. It brought parts of such famous superhighways as the Pennsylvania Turnpike and the New York Thruway into the 41,000 mile defense linked federal highway system.

Some Were Omitted

There were some notable omissions. The West Virginia Turnpike was left out altogether. So was the northeast extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike and most of the New Jersey Turnpike.

The bureau said these famous toll roads were omitted because they "did not lie along general location lines of the interstate system."

New Jersey's Garden State Parkway was omitted because it bars trucks.

The bureau must tell Congress by next January how much it would cost to buy the roads. Congress then will decide whether to purchase them.

The bureau said it could give

Powell Named To Commissions

Representative Paul Powell (D-Vienna) has been reappointed to the Illinois Budgetary Commission. He has been a member of this commission since 1945.

He was also appointed to the Legislative Audit Commission, which is a new commission established by the 70th General Assembly. This commission will determine policies of the Auditor-General, and make reports and recommendations to the General Assembly concerning the state audit, revenues and expenditures.

Commission selections were made recently by House Minority Leader Joseph L. DeLaCour of Chicago.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D. (Written for NEA Service)
Big cities have the same things that are found in small towns but the numbers of these things are greater. There are more people, more cars, more stores, more churches, more streets and more schools. There has to be more food, more clothing, more business, more entertainment and more housing.

In the cities one finds more temptation and more sin. There is probably more friendship and more charity. Certainly there is more wealth and more poverty.

Doubtless cities offer as much opportunity in worship and to love our fellowmen as do smaller communities. Love and peace come only from personal contact with God. Worship is not determined by the size of the town. It is determined by the spiritual courage and faith of the individual.

Whenever we live, we must find salvation and God's will for us on a personal basis. God deals with individuals everywhere regardless of the size of the town.

Dodgers Tangle with Braves After 8-0 Win Over Reds; Giants Beat Cardinals, 13-6

By United Press

Manager Walt Alston has bluntly told his Dodgers "it's now or never" — and apparently they believe him.

The Dodgers, about to tangle head-on with first-place Milwaukee tonight in the first of a three-game series, are "in momentum" with a three-game winning streak and believe they can overtake the Braves.

The Brooks combined fine pitching, solid hitting and a flawless defense in handing the Cincinnati Redlegs their ninth straight defeat, 8-0, Wednesday.

Don Newcombe won his 10th game of the season.

Gino Cimoli gave Newcombe a 3-0 lead when he belted a home run with two on in the third inning and the Dodgers hammered Hal Jeffcoat from the box with a five-run outburst in the seventh.

Win Streak Ends

The New York Giants ended the Cardinals' four-game winning streak with a 13-6 victory in the only other National League game scheduled.

In the American League, the White Sox mauled the Senators, 12-6; Baltimore defeated Detroit, 9-3; the Kansas City Athletics cut the Yankee lead to six games by trimming the world champs for the second straight time, 6-3, and Boston ended a five-game losing streak with a 3-1 victory over Cleveland.

Six home runs were hit in the Giants-Cardinals tussle, with Wally Moon, Stan Musial, Eddie Miksis and Ken Boyer connecting for St. Louis, and Willie Mays and Hank Sauer hitting homers for New York.

The Giants routed loser Lindy McDaniel with a six-run third inning and Valmy Thomas tripled with the bases full in the fifth to highlight a four-run rally. Bonus southpaw Mike McCormick was the winner, coming to starter Stu Miller's rescue in the first inning.

The White Sox scored seven runs in the third inning to clinch their game with Washington.

Bob Usher, Roy Sievers and Art Schut each homered for the Senators, all of the blows coming with the bases empty. Reliever Gerry Staley was credited with his fifth victory while Russ Kemmerer suffered his eighth defeat.

Williams Goes Hitless

Joe Durham and Al Pilarcik each hit three-run homers to lead the Orioles to their victory over the Tigers. Ray Moore, who registered his ninth victory, blanked the Tigers until the seventh inning when Detroit reliever Lou Sleater wallop his third Homer of the season with two on. Ken Lehman relieved Moore in the ninth. Southpaw Billy Hoeft gave up Baltimore's first four runs to suffer his eighth defeat.

Jim Piersall's two-run homer in the third inning paved the way for the Red Sox victory over Mike Garcia, whose only satisfaction was in holding Ted Williams hitless in four trips to cut Ted's batting average to .385. Willard Nixon helped himself to his 10th victory by singling before Piersall's home run.

Former Yankees did all the damage as Kansas City won its first series from New York since moving west. One-time Yankee farmhand Jack Urban pitched the eighth victory, with ninth-inning help from Virgil Trucks, and in the three-run first inning which tagged Johnny Kucks with the loss, the names of Vic Power, Billy Hunter, Bob Cerv, Billy Martin and Woody Held figured in the run-making. What proved to be the winning runs came in the fourth inning on a walk to Held and singles by Tim Thompson and Urban.

Du Quoin, home of the Hambletonian, is sparkling with color and excitement as last minute preparations are being completed to welcome throngs of visitors to the Du Quoin State Fair, which opens Sunday and continues through Labor Day. The Fair will present the world's richest harness race, the $10,000 Hambletonian Stake on Tuesday, August 27, as the high point of its Grand Circuit harness racing meet.

Starting Sunday with Joie Chitwood's motorama thrillers, followed by championship motorboat races, the Fair gets into full swing

Which horse will win the world-famous Hambletonian is anybody's guess, but one thing is certain this year's Du Quoin State Fair will rank as one of the "whoppington shindigs" ever staged in the Midwest.

Stagerama, Labor Day Show

The Mills Brothers, The Wiere Brothers, and Betty Johnson head a cast of sixty performers in the brilliant 1957 Stagerama, to be held nightly from Aug. 26 through Sept. 1. On Labor Day Night only, Guy Mitchell, Joni James, The Four Aces, and the Fontane Sisters appear in person in an all-new variety show.

Grand Circuit harness racing is slated from Monday, August 26 through Friday, August 30, followed by USAC automobile racing on the three afternoons of Labor Day weekend. On Saturday, August 31, the 100-mile national championship Stock Car Race will be held on Du Quoin's one-mile oval, with late-model convertibles carded for Sunday, and the 100-mile national championship Big Car Race on Labor Day.

A total of $62,000 is earmarked for premiums in the livestock show and allied division. Livestock judging will begin at noon on Monday, and continue through Thursday noon. The many free exhibits include the Lions Club's Dream Home and a display of the newest equipment now being used by the Army, Navy, and Air Force.

To Use Helicopters

Helicopters will play an important role at this year's Du Quoin State Fair. Each afternoon after the races, spectators will see trapeze artists perform on ropes and bars hanging from a helicopter five hundred feet in the air. The "whirlybirds" will also be used in a passenger shuttle-service between downtown Du Quoin and the Fair grounds. State police will utilize the 'copters for traffic direction on Hambletonian Day.

Children's Day at the Du Quoin State Fair is Friday, August 30. Youngsters under twelve are to be admitted free at the gates until six o'clock on Dallas' hit in the hole between short and third.

VFW players getting hits were Dallas, Stout and Siski two hits each, and Romonosky, Vick and Wallace getting single hits. Esman, the Bluford pitcher, gave Tonazzi the most trouble as he collected three of his team's hits.

The Harrisburg VFW baseball team won its 19th game of the season last night on VFW field when it edged out the Bluford Legion 4-3. Ray Tonazzi won his sixth game of the season as he pitched another 7-hitter. In Tonazzi's last three games he has pitched 7-hitters and has won each game by one run.

The VFW pushed across the tying runs in the eighth when Romonosky walked, Dallas tripled, Dallas scored on a passed ball, Vick was hit by a pitched ball and the rightfielder erred on Jim Hay's fly ball to allow the tying run to cross. In the 9th Romonosky singled, stole second and

Defense Describes Spicy Antics Of Mae West, Dorothy Dandridge

HOLLYWOOD — A recess was called today in the spicy Confidential criminal libel trial in the heat of a defense move aimed at proving Mae West possessed a passion for boxer and singer Dorothy Dandridge made love in the woods with a bandleader.

Top-secret sources of lurid stories in Confidential and Whisper magazines were disclosed Wednesday prior to the adjournment of the trial until Friday. The defense maintained that affidavits were obtained to substantiate stories on such film celebrities as Clark Gable, Maureen O'Hara, John Carroll and Producer Paul Gregory.

Fred Meade, operator with his wife of a Hollywood "listening post" for Confidential, was the defense counsel's "bombshell" witness of the day. Meade told of persons who tipped him off on prospective stories about the off-screen life of movie stars.

Miss West was introduced into testimony when Meade was asked about the Confidential story titled, "Mae West's Open-Door Policy." The story claimed Miss West was not kidding when she said "come on and see me some time" and alleged that her chauffeur took her up on the offer.

Meade testified that Miss West had an "affinity" for prize fighters and often hired them as chauffeurs. The defense witness, also a defendant in the trial, said he obtained a letter signed by a "Dale Wright" and an affidavit from one-time featherweight champion Albert (Chalky) Wright to authenticate that Miss West allegedly had other than business relations

Woman Accused of Theft, Daughter Are Arrested

TULSA, Okla. — A 51-year-old woman accused of theft and embezzlement in the United States, Canada and Hawaii and her daughter were in jail today because a doctor's receptionist recognized the woman from newspaper descriptions.

Mrs. Margaret Lydia Burton was held on $30,000 bond on charges of interstate transportation of stolen property. Her blond daughter, Sheila Joy, 20, was charged with conspiring in the act and held on $10,000 bond.

The charges against them state the stolen goods and money amount to more than $100,000. They were arrested Wednesday.

The pair left Atlanta, Ga., about a month ago after a $100,000 shortage was found in the accounts of a clinic at Decatur, Ga., where Mrs. Burton had been office manager for two years.

The FBI said Mrs. Burton is a China-born British subject who has used 22 aliases since the first charge was filed against her in 1938. The FBI said her daughter is a former honor student at a fashionable Atlanta school.

Wrecking Crew Rescues Girl, 3, Wedged Between Buildings

PROVIDENCE, R. I. — A chubby, 3-year-old girl, wedged between two buildings for 20 hours, was dug out by a wrecking company crew today.

The child, Eileen Fahey, was crying as rescuers brought her through a cheering and weeping crowd of 1,000 persons.

Eileen was taken to Rhode Island Hospital in a waiting ambulance.

"Thank God," her father, John M. Fahey, 39, a railroad brakeman, said when the girl was lifted from her cramped tomb through a hole hammered by rescuers.

She had slipped into the 8-inch space Wednesday, apparently while chasing a kitten.

Hoffa's Wiretap Voice Links Teamster to Dio

"I didn't make an investigation of Johnny Dio," Hoffa retorted. "I had no reason to do so."

Learned Dio's Record

"We met in 1952. This was early 1953. We were discussing labor. He was an official of the UAW. We were trying to work out a problem between our two organizations."

"You had no idea he had been involved in racketeering?" asked Sen. Karl E. Mundt (R-S.D.).

"I didn't say that," Hoffa replied hastily. "I don't know whether I knew it then, but I did find out he had been convicted. He wasn't convicted while in the UAW, but he was convicted."

Today's session began with the committee charge that the Teamsters paid Joe Louis $2,500 "for sitting in the courtroom for two hours" at Hoffa's bribery-conspiracy trial.

Hoffa replied that "if he was paid, he was not paid by Hoffa. I know nothing about it."

The committee asked Hoffa to submit a list of expenses paid by the union for Louis, union officials and goons who came to Washington during Hoffa's recent trial on charges that he tried to plant a spy on the committee staff to steal secret documents.

The committee previously brought out that the union paid Louis' hotel bill.

The committee said Wednesday that Teamster treasures have paid $5,159 of a $8,925 bill amassed at the Woodner Hotel here, where Teamster officials stayed during Hoffa's month-long trial.

State Appeals

Awards for Land Condemnation

MARION, Ill. — The state of Illinois has filed a notice of appeal in a Circuit Court here as a result of land condemnation awards given to property owners in Carterville for highway construction purposes.

Special Asst. State's Atty. Kenneth Powless, Marion, said the appeal was filed because he feels the awards given by a Williamson County jury in the recent condemnation suit were excessive.

He said the state plans to take the appeal to the state Supreme Court.

W. D. MacLeod, of the district highway headquarters in Carbondale, said the appeal would delay highway construction at Carterville for at least a year.

He also said the awards made in the condemnation case would have a far-reaching effect on other proposed construction in Williamson County and elsewhere in southern Illinois.

He said other projects might be delayed as a result of the appeal.

MacLeod said the state is attempting to acquire land for a right-of-way from Marion to Dongola for a proposed highway construction project.

PUSAN, Korea — Typhoon Agnes sank nine United States and Korean ships, killed two persons and caused more than $650,000 damage when it roared through Pusan Wednesday with 100-mile-an-hour winds. The U. N. command reported today.

It said two small U. S. harbor craft sank under 15-foot waves that swept the harbor during the storm. Seven Korean boats also went under and two more were missing.

The Kyongsang-Namdo provincial government reported the storm killed two Koreans and that 13 were injured. It said no U. S. personnel were killed.

Police reports in Tokyo said Typhoon Agnes killed or injured 23 persons in Kyushu and Shikoku in southern Japan and that 16 other persons were missing. It said floods destroyed or damaged 1,454 homes.

The storm last was reported inland in Korea and losing strength fast.

Return Education To Churches, Bishop Urges

MARION, Ill. — The general overseer of the Church of God today called for the return of public education to the churches.

Bishop Homer A. Tomlinson of New York spoke today at the opening of the 52nd General Assembly of the Church of God. He said public education, welfare and social security had their start in the churches and should be returned to the churches.

"Under secular administration these great Christian laborers have sabotaged family life, induced lawlessness, immorality, laziness and loneliness," he charged.

"Outside the supervision of the Church of God these have been built into a tower of Babel up which the present generation has been asked to climb for safety, but have found only a jumping off place."

The bishop also recommended that academies to study peace be established and that holidays celebrating military victories be abolished.

Air Force Cancels Work on Plane

WASHINGTON — The Air Force has cancelled a 100 million dollar airplane without getting a chance to take it on a ride.

The decision to halt work on the 1,400-mile-an-hour XF103, originally designed as an interceptor and then converted to a research project, was prompted by the current economy axe and because other research vehicles would provide the same data, the Air Force said.

A spokesman said the plane, under development for six years, had never reached the flying stage. It was under joint development by Republic Aviation and the Wright Aeronautical Division of Curtis-Wright Corp.

He said the state plans to take the appeal to the state Supreme Court.

W. D. MacLeod, of the district highway headquarters in Carbondale, said the appeal would delay highway construction at Carterville for at least a year.
